

IC 3-3-3

Chapter 3. Congressional Districts

IC 3-3-3-1

Terms and references to geographic units; descriptions and maps; federal census and related documents incorporated by reference

Sec. 1. (a) As used in this chapter, all terms and references to geographic units made in the descriptions of congressional districts in this chapter have the same meanings as the terms have when used by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, in reporting the 1990 decennial census of Indiana, and describe the same geographical boundaries as depicted by maps included in the official census report.

(b) The commission shall separately maintain and preserve the descriptions and maps included in the 1990 decennial census of Indiana. The commission shall make those descriptions and maps available for public inspection during regular office hours.

(c) The official report and all official documents relating to the report of this census are incorporated by reference into this chapter. As added by P.L.240-1991(ss2), SEC.122. Amended by P.L.2-1996, SEC.2.

IC 3-3-3-2

Number of districts and representatives; time of election

Sec. 2. Indiana is divided into ten (10) districts as described in this chapter. From each of these districts there shall be elected one (1) representative to the Congress of the United States at the general election held in Indiana on November 3, 1992, and at each subsequent general election.

As added by P.L.240-1991(ss2), SEC.122.

IC 3-3-3-3

Parts of state not described as within district or described as within multiple districts

Sec. 3. (a) Any part of Indiana that has not been described as included in one (1) of the districts described in this chapter is included within the district that:

- (1) is contiguous to the part; and
- (2) contains the least population of all districts contiguous to the part according to the 1990 decennial census of Indiana.

(b) If any part of Indiana is described in this chapter as being in more than one (1) district, the part is included within the district that:

- (1) is one (1) of the districts in which that part is listed in this chapter;
- (2) is contiguous to that part; and
- (3) contains the least population according to the 1990 decennial census of Indiana.

(c) If any part of Indiana is:

- (1) described in this chapter as being in one (1) district; and
- (2) entirely surrounded by another district;

the part shall be incorporated into the district that surrounds the part.

(d) If any part of Indiana is:

(1) described as being in one (1) district; and

(2) is not contiguous to another part of the district that contains the majority of the population in the district;

the part is included with the contiguous district that contains the least population according to the 1990 decennial census of Indiana.

As added by P.L.240-1991(ss2), SEC.122.

IC 3-3-3-4

Declaration of unconstitutionality; redistricting plan

Sec. 4. If a court holds any part of this chapter to be unconstitutional, a redistricting commission shall:

(1) be established;

(2) meet; and

(3) adopt a congressional redistricting plan;

as provided in IC 3-3-2, notwithstanding any time restrictions specified in IC 3-3-2.

As added by P.L.240-1991(ss2), SEC.122.
